Dr. Linkov offers a wide variety of surgical and non-surgical options for changing the appearance of the face and neck. Whenever possible, he prefers to use minimally-invasive procedures to achieve the desired result. His artistic background paired with an Ivy League medical education has given him a unique combination of skill and talent tailored for the field of facial plastic surgery. His attention to detail and facial balance are evident in the stunning, natural results he has achieved for his patients.

Hair Transplant NYC

https://cityfacialplastics.com/hair-transplant/

Surgical hair restoration, known as a hair transplant, is currently the most effective procedure to restore natural hair after hair loss. Dr. Gary Linkov, M.D. is a dual Ivy League trained, double board-certified plastic surgeon and hair transplant specialist from NYC, offering a range of hair restoration procedures to men and women experiencing hair loss in New York. As an expert hair transplant doctor and top-rated surgeon, he uses the latest FUE and FUT techniques to reverse hair loss and regain real growing hair. He is wellknown in the community as the hair restoration specialist to go to when your goal is to have a fuller head of hair. Dr. Linkov has been featured on Dr. Oz's show and, according to USA Today, is among the top 3 aesthetic facial and hair surgery specialists in the USA. Visit our clinic in Manhattan on Madison Ave and 60th Str for the latest hair graft technics and the best hair restoration options tailored to your unique needs.
